

I'm a PASSIONATE leader.

Passion is what drives my involvement and my life choices. I have found a love for the Alternative Breaks program. Through my experiences here, I have created social change in areas that I am passionate about, such as animal rights. I hope to continue growing my passion as I begin my quest into finding a full-time job. Without a passion, I would be lost in a world of chaos. “No one with a cause other than themselves should ever be embarrassed by anything they do in the name of that cause. It's the people who have no cause other than themselves who should be embarrassed.” –Marion Willetts, ISU Sociologist Professor
