Sponsored RSO
Criteria to be a Sponsored RSO

- The purpose and operations of the RSO are considered integral and inherently linked to a specific department/school and/or the University.

- The sponsoring department/school has approval and decision-making authority and will include a statement in the RSO constitution/by-laws stating as such.

- The department/school, through the advisor, provides oversight to the RSO. The department/school leadership- has approval and denial authority for RSO activities.

- The advisor meets with the RSO on a regular basis and is well-versed on the current and proposed activities of the RSO.
What it Means to be a Sponsored RSO

• The department/school is obligating the University to assume liability for RSO activities.
• The department/school may be held financially responsible/liable for claims incurred by the University as a result of RSO activities.
• Can have a financial account on campus even for self-generated fees.
• Can utilize the University’s tax-exempt number when uses funds housed in University account.
• Can utilize University purchasing card.
• Contracts for performers/vendors can exceed $4,999.
• Events may be covered by the University’s general liability insurance.
• Must follow University procedures.

What do we do?
What we do...

- RSO annual registration process, orientations, and recruitment fairs.
- Communicate campus policies/procedures to RSO leaders and advisors.
- Process payments for RSOs who receive allocation from Student Fee Board.
- Provide resources/training for RSO leaders and advisors.
- Manage Redbird Life platform.
- Consult on issues/concerns facing RSOs.
- Manage the Student Involvement Center space and resources.
Annual RSO Re-Registration

- Five (5) students required to be able to register.
  - One (1) president and one (1) treasurer minimum.
  - If a student holding an officer position is not in good disciplinary standing, they are expected to step down from the position until they are back in good standing.
- One (1) advisor and one (1) fiscal agent (can be the same person).
- Confirmation sent to student who registered.

If needing to update RSO membership outside of annual registration, RSOs should do so within the roster section of the RSO's Redbird Life profile.

Directions can be found on the RSO Registration webpage:
https://deanofstudents.illinoisstate.edu/involvement/organizations/registration/
Fall 2021 RSO COVID-19 Updates

Policies and Procedures
The University will continue to follow the most up-to-date health and safety guidance and will make adjustments accordingly when necessary.

For Fall 2021, RSOs will be able to:
- Resume meetings, programs, and events in-person. RSOs will also be able to reserve classroom space through appropriate scheduling channels.
- Recruit RSO members at Festival ISU in-person. The event is planned to occur over several days to create lower density events targeting different RSO clusters on each day.
- Register events with alcohol.
- Utilize non-prepackaged food. RSOs will still need to submit necessary paperwork for a temporary food permit.

For more information, visit the Fall 2021: Return to a More Traditional College Experience website.

RSO Travel
Travel by Sponsored Registered Student Organizations is considered University-sponsored travel. As a result, Sponsored RSOs must follow University guidance and any restrictions related to University-sponsored travel. For information on required University-sponsored travel practices, visit the University Sponsored Student Travel section on the Fall 2021: Return to a More Traditional College Experience website.
